Dear Beloved Parishioners and Guests,

We definitely are now back in the “swing of things”. Fr. Ray and I already have participated in various organizational meetings – be it the UCWLC, the Knights of Columbus, the Parish Council Executive, the Golden Agers, the Catechism Coordinator, etc. We are most pleased with the positive energy and the generous spirit that each organization projects. Needless to say, we are very proud of you all and sincerely are very happy to be “part & parcel” of your lives.

These past Sundays were indeed, “sad” and “happy” days. Sad because it seemed that summer is almost over, but happy because so many of you were back praying with us here at St. Mary's. It felt wonderful celebrating the Divine Liturgy with all your voices singing and praising our good Lord Jesus!

How blessed we are in Yorkton to be served by a professional and excellent Catholic School System – Christ the Teacher – with St. Mary's, St. Alphonsus, St. Paul's, St. Michael's and Sacred Heart High School all providing an effective Catholic education for our little ones and our teenagers! For this we must all give thanks!

We, however also provide a special Catechism program for the children of the parish who are preparing for their First Solemn Holy Communion. Again, we are blessed to have wonderful volunteers to conduct this program. We thank in advance all the parents who will register their beloved children in this important phase of their “faith journey”. Grandparents – remind your sons and daughters that you truly want your grandchild in this parish program. We will not rest easy until All the parish children are actively receiving a solid Christian formation and education. Dear Parents, we truly wish to assist you as you realize this great responsibility you have accepted!

And yes, we are in the planning stage to provide an Adult Religious Program. This type of program proved to be most successful in St. Joseph's in Wpg and I truly believe this will be a most special “gift” to all of us adults – a chance to deepen and enliven our Christian faith in a most interesting and challenging way! Keep posted!

Just a friendly reminder - we work extra hard on our parish bulletin, providing as much 'info' of Parish and Community events as possible. There is no way you can memorize it during the Liturgy. Please take the bulletin home. We will be personally hurt if you just discard it! So do make us all happy!

If at times, you do not see me on Sunday, that means I am celebrating Liturgy in one of our country parishes and getting to know them also!

God bless you all! And do have a wonderful harvesting week!
