Dear Beloved Parishioners and Guests,

Truly we warmly welcome Msgr Michael Buyachok who is generously sharing his faith and his love for God with us, during this year's annual Vidpust. We are pleased that so many of you have participated in the holy religious celebration. May God continue to generously bless you and yours...

A mother with a fidgety seven-year old boy told me how she finally got her son to sit still. Here's how: about halfway through the sermon, she leaned over and whispered: "If you don't be quiet, Father Bohdan is going to lose his place and will have to start his sermon all over again!" Apparently it worked!

"Starting all over again" in some instances is the very last thing some people want to do. On the other hand, some sincerely wish they could start all over again. "If I only had another chance...", they might say to themselves. Is there anything you know you could do better? For instance, is today the day I will do my best not to lose my temper with "so and so"; get those errands finished earlier and thus create an extra hour for my children or loved one; do that random act of kindness and compassion; be spontaneous with my friends and family; tell them that I love them?

Daily God gives us multifarious chances to 'start over'. Every sunrise abundantly attests to God's great generosity. These precious opportunities stem from our Baptism whereby God makes us "new" again. This grace is virtually offered every day, every week. Let us never grow tired of starting over in the eyes of God for we are most precious and loved by Him. Simultaneously, we will probably play an important role in the life of someone else who truly wanted to start all over again. God will happily use us. Be patient. Give Him glory!

I realize that so many parishioners will have disappeared for the summer, so I hesitate to write more, but I do want everyone to celebrate God's great love for us all! So take an extra bulletin and give it to your friends who may not be here with us this Sunday or many other Sundays. In the meantime, we will do our best to keep things moving smoothly in the parish – quietly, efficiently and prayerfully!

As you may or may not know, Father Methodius will be journeying to Ukraine on a Blessed Vasyl pilgrimage with Fr. Sianchuk for most of July. Pray for a safe and happy journey. Father Ray will disappear for 3 weeks in August for his vacation time.

Oh yes, I have been informed that we print only one bulletin in July and one in August. And of course, we celebrate only one Sunday 10:00 Liturgy in the summer! May the Good Lord bless you all and may He travel with you!

P.S. There is an excellent article in Time mag entitled: "Forgiving other people is good for your health." Please do read it...
