Glory be to Jesus Christ!

I have another delightful story to share with you...
Charles Plumb, a US Navel Academy graduate, was a jet pilot in Vietnam. After 75 combat missions, his plane was destroyed by a missile and Plumb parachuted into enemy lands. He was captured and spent 6 years in a communist Vietnamese prison. He survived the ordeal and now lectured on lessons he learned from that experience.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

One day when Plumb and his wife were sitting in a restaurant, a man at another table came up and said "You're Plumb! You flew jet fighters in Vietnam from the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk. You were shot down!" "How in the world did you know that?" asked Plumb. "I packed your parachute," replied the man. Plumb gasped in surprise and gratitude. The man shook his hand and said "I guess it worked?" Plumb assured him, "If your parachute had not worked I would not be here today."

Plumb couldn't sleep that night, thinking about that man. Plumb says ; "I kept wondering what he might have looked like when he was younger. I wonder how many times I might have seen him and not even said 'good morning' or how are you or anything because, you see, I was a fighter pilot and he was just a sailor." Plumb thought of the many hours the sailor had spent on a long wooden table in the bowels of the ship, carefully weaving ropes and folding the silks of each chute, holding in his hands the fate of someone he did not know.

When Plumb told his story, he explained that there were many different kinds of parachutes that he needed when his jet was shot down over enemy territory – he needed his physical parachute, his mental parachute, his emotional parachute and his spiritual one. He called on all of these supports before reaching safety. And someone at some time packed each of the parachutes that he needed. So Plumb asks all of us: "Who has packed your parachute?" To whom are you grateful for providing what you need to survive in life?

How often we get caught up in our own importance and forget the vital role so many people play in our lives. None of us ever packs all of our own parachutes. Many different people do this for us throughout all of our lives. But what is essential to know and to always remember is that it is not only our parachute that needs proper packing. The world also awaits our role as the "packers" of parachutes.

Parents prepare their children for the safe "flight of life" by packing solid Christian principles into their upbringing. Teachers pack their student's parachutes with positive knowledge and a love for learning. I, your priest, must pack your parachute in such a way that someday you, my dear parishioners, will have something to hold on to. Every profession is yet another parachute for someone to someday use.

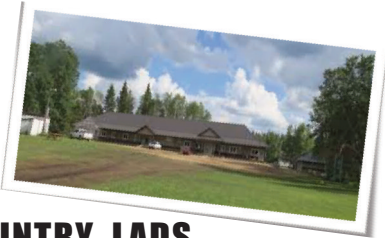

I urge you to consider the huge responsibility that each of us has toward our fellow man and the power that we each have to affect the people in our lives, whether we know them or not. May we approach this responsibility with love and thoughtfulness – with the love of Christ and one another!
