Are you between the ages of 35-64? Do you live in Saskatchewan?

We are looking for middle-aged adults living in Saskatchewan to participate in a study to investigate the influence of psychological and social factors on physical activity levels.

This research takes place 100% online and begins with an eligibility screening questionnaire. Upon being deemed eligible, participants will be asked to complete a series of questionnaires assessing experiences of social support, resilience, emotion regulation, and control beliefs in addition to their current physical activity levels. These questionnaires will take approximately 30 minutes. After completing these questionnaires, participants will be randomized to complete a Brief Action Plan or set a general physical activity goal. For the Brief Action Plan, participants will be invited to set a personal goal in improving a lifestyle habit related to physical activity. After 2 and 4 weeks, participants will be asked to complete another set of questionnaires to assess the barriers and facilitators that you faced in achieving your personal goal. Each of these follow-up questionnaires will take under 10 minutes. All of the responses will be kept completely anonymous and confidential. The survey responses will help us investigate the relationship between resilience, emotion regulation, social support, control beliefs, and adult health. The findings may allow our team to make health care and policy recommendations to promote adult health in our community. In order to participate individuals will simply need to click on or type a link into any web browser through any electronic device and complete the survey. This research has been approved by the University of Regina Ethics Board.

PRAYER VIGIL - OCTOBER 1ST

IN HONOUR OF

THE PROTECTION OF THE MOTHER OF GOD

The Fatima Prayer Apostolate will hold a prayer vigil on October 1st, in honour of the Protection of the Mother of God (Pokrov). This is an age-old holy day, dating back to the 10th century when an army of barbarians threatened to annihilate Constantinople. The Mother of God, together with St. John the Baptist and other heavenly personages, appeared to a group of locals already consumed in prayer. They envisioned the Blessed Virgin and Her Heavenly mantle and covered the people. In response the inhabitants of the area prayerfully gathered in their church and were spared their lives and their property through the intercession of the Mother of God. This tribute to Our Lady has survived for many centuries. Let us continue to show Her the honour due Her and to ask for Her continuous intercession.

All parishioners are invited to join in an hour of prayers following the October 1st Divine Liturgy.

PLEASE NOTE:

WE HAVE A DEFIBRILLATOR IN THE SACRISTY IF THE NEED ARISES

The Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Saskatoon Eparchial Safeguarding Policy: Covenant of Care, Electronic Communication and Technology & Abuse and Misconduct Policy is a code of conduct which is designed to create safe and respectful church communities and healthy ministerial relationships, and to protect people from abuse and the harm that results.

Please note that there is a Thanksgiving Outreach Envelope for October in the Sunday Offering envelope box. Outreach donation envelopes are also available at each entrance of the church.

“CANADA NEEDS OUR LADY” ROSARY RALLY
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16TH 12:00 NOON

In these times Our Lady comes to remind us of Her Fatima Message and to encourage all Her children to comply with Her requests for continuous prayer in order to gain peace in the world. “Tell everyone that God gives graces through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Tell them to ask graces from Her...”

The “Canada Needs Our Lady” Rosary Rallies have been held in towns and cities across Canada for many years. This year we have received permission to hold our 3rd Public Rosary Rally at the public park at Second Avenue and Broadway downtown Yorkton. It will begin at 12:00 Noon.

We invite you, we implore you, to join us in prayer so that Our Lady's promise of a time of peace will come, hopefully in our lifetime.

TROPARS, KONDAKS, EPISTLE & GOSPEL FOR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 26
18TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Tropar, tone 1: Though the stone was sealed by the Jews* and soldiers guarded Your most pure body,* You arose, O Savior, on the third day,* and gave life to the world.* And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of life:* Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ!* Glory to Your kingdom!* Glory to Your saving plan,* O only Lover of Mankind.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and for ever and ever. Amen!

Kondak, tone 1: You arose in glory from the tomb* and with Yourself You raised the world.* All humanity acclaim You as God, and death has vanished.* Adam exults, O Master,* and Eve, redeemed now from bondage, cries out for joy.* "You are the One, O Christ, Who offer resurrection to all."

Prokimen, tone 1: Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

Verse: Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous.

Epistle: A reading from the Second Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians. (9: 6 - 11)

Brothers and Sisters! He who sows sparingly will reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will reap bountifully. Everyone must give according to what he has inwardly decided; not sadly, not grudgingly, for God loves a cheerful giver. God can multiply his favors among you so that you may always have enough of everything and even a surplus for good works, as it is written: "He scattered abroad and gave to the poor, his justice endures forever." He who supplies seed for the sower and bread for the eater will provide in abundance; he will multiply the seed you sow and increase your generous yield. In every way your liberality is enriched; through us it results in thanks offered to God.

Alleluia Verses:

God gives me vindication, and has subdued peoples under me.

Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity for ever.

Gospel: Luke 5: 1 - 11

At that time as he stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd pressed in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats moored by the side of the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to pull out a short distance from the shore; then, remaining seated, he continued to teach the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have been hard at it all night long and have caught nothing; but if you say so, I will lower the nets." Upon doing this they caught such a great number of fish that their nets were at the breaking point. They signaled to their mates in the other boat to come and help them. These came, and together they filled the two boats until they nearly sank. At the sight of this, Simon Peter fell at the knees of Jesus saying, "Leave me, Lord. I am a sinful man." For indeed, amazement at the catch they had made seized him and all his shipmates, as well as James and John, Zedede's sons, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will be catching men." With that they brought their boats to land, left everything, and became his followers.

Communion Hymn: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 3
19TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Tropar, tone 2: When You went down to death, O Life Immortal,* You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity.* When You raised the dead from the nether world,* all the powers of heaven cried out:* "O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory be to You!"

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and for ever and ever. Amen!

Kondak, tone 2: You rose from the tomb, O almighty Savior;* and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose.* Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults.* And the world, my Savior, sings Your praises for ever.

Prokimen, tone 2: The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.
Verse: The Lord has indeed chastised me, but He has not delivered me to death.

Epistle: A reading from the Second Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians. (11: 31 - 12: 9)

Brothers and Sisters! The God and Father of the Lord Jesus knows --- blessed be he forever --- that I do not lie. In Damascus the ethnarch of King Aretas was keeping a close watch on the city in order to arrest me, but I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands. I must go on boasting, however useless it may be, and speak of visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ who, fourteen years ago, whether he was in or outside his body I cannot say, only God can say --- a man who was snatched up to the third heaven. I know that this man --- whether in or outside his body I do not know, God knows --- was snatched up to Paradise to hear words which cannot be uttered, words which no man may speak. About this man I will boast; but I will do no boasting about myself unless it be about my weaknesses. And even if I were to boast it would not be folly in me because I would only be telling the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from my lips. As to the extraordinary revelations, in order that I might not become conceited I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and keep me from getting proud. Three times I begged the Lord that this might leave me. He said to me, "My grace is enough for you, for in weakness power reaches perfection." And so I willingly boast of my weaknesses instead, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Alleluia Verses:

The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.

Lord, grant victory to the king, and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You.

Gospel: Luke 6: 31 - 36

The Lord said: "Do to others what you would have them do to you. If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, how can you claim any credit? Sinners do as much. If you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what merit is there in it for you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full. Love your enemy and do good; lend without expecting repayment. Then will your recompense be great. You will rightly be called sons of the Most High, since he himself is good to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be compassionate, as your Father is compassionate."

Communion Hymn: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
