7:00 pm Sundays English/Ukrainian

Beloved Parishioners and Guests,

Glory be to Jesus Christ! Glory be forever!

I almost dread reading the daily paper each morning and daily discover ever more fear and anxiety in the world - the horrible tensions of war, the heart-rending conflicts in the middle East, be it in Palestine, Iraq or Syria, or in Ukraine, the heart-ache of broken homes and families, the painful loss of a loved one and anxious fear of unknown terrorist attacks.

Truly we live in a stress-filled and disturbing world that actually longs for peace and reconciliation, for a world where sisters and brothers of whatever colour, or creed, or nationality could live together in loving harmony. This is not only our desire, but the desire of Jesus who came into this world to show us how to live together as one large global family - that we help and serve one another, that we heal each other's hurts and misunderstandings, that we express our love to one another by, first of all, praying for one another and secondly, forgiving each other.

This invitation of Jesus to live the Christ-like life is for each and every one of us - that you and I, wherever we are, be "instruments of peace" and "channels of love." We must do this in our personal lives, in our homes, in our schools and in our places of work. If today you strive to establish more peace and love with every person you meet is there then not peace in the whole world. Our little individual efforts of forgiveness and love can also diminish the tension and conflict - yes, in Ukraine, in the Middle East, yes, even in Venezuela, in Columbia, in Pakistan, etc.

How often in the course of our daily and Sunday Liturgies we pray over and over again for peace, for forgiveness, for our leaders, for our governments, for those who serve and protect us, for the poor, the sick, the suffering, the lonely and the abandoned, for the removal of injustice and persecution in the world. Yes, we pray for these intentions in church, but they can only become real and life-giving, if you strive to "live our prayer" in our daily actions and in our personal lives.

We are on the threshold of Great Lent - a holy 40 day spiritual preparation for the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ - the very foundation of our faith in God. In these times of stress and fear, we are strongly encouraged to make this holy season a personal time of spiritual growth and prayer. We have so many special prayerful lenten services to assist us on our "peace-searching" journey of life!

Please - as a parishioner, as a citizen of the world, make an earthly difference! Come as a family, come as an individual - we implore you!

'NO GOD, NO PEACE; KNOW GOD, KNOW PEACE!'

Слава Ісусу Христу!

СЛОВО ПАРОХА

Я майже боюся читати часопис Free Press щоранку і щодня бачити щораз більше страху та неспокою у світі – жахливе напруження війни, тяжкі конфлікти на Середньому Сході, чи в Палестині, чи в Іраку, чи ще далше в Афганістані, душевний біль розбитих домів та родин, болюча втрата дорогих нам людей та занепокоєний страх перед можливими терористичними нападами.

Ми справді живемо у напруженім та стурбованім світі, який дійсно прагне погодження та миру в світі, світі, де сестри та брати будь-якого кольору, віровизнання чи національності могли б жити разом в любовній злагоді. Це не лиш наше бажання, але бажання Христа, Котрий прийшов у цей світ показати нам, як жити разом, як одна світова родина – щоб ми могли помагати та служити одні одним, щоб ми загоювали одні одним болі та непорозуміння, щоб ми одні одним показували свою любов тим, що передусім будемо взаємно молитися за один одного та прощати один одному.

Ісус запрошує кожного і кожну з нас, щоб ми стали такими, як Христос – щоб, де б ми не були, ми були «знаряддям миру» та «джерелом любови». Мусимо це робити у своїм особистім житті, у своїх домах, у своїх школах та у своїх місцях праці. Якщо Ви сьогодні будете стреміти до того, щоб утвердити мир та любов з кожною особою, якою Ви зустрінетеся, чи не буде тоді більше миру у світі? Наше мале особисте зусилля прощати та любити може зменшити напругу та конфлікти – навіть на Середньому Сході, навіть у Венесуелі, Колумбії, в Пакистані та Північній Кореї і т.д.

Як часто під час щоденних чи недільних Служб Божих ми ще раз і ще раз молимося за мир, за прощення, за наших провідників, за наші держави, за тих, хто служить, щоб нас охороняти, за убогих, за хворих, за страждаючих, за опущених та самотних, за знищення несправедливості та переслідування у світі. Так, ми молимося за ці намірення в церкві але вони можуть стати правдивими та життєдайними лиш тоді, коли ми будемо прагнути до того, щоб «перевести свою молитву в життя», нею жити щодня.

Ми стоїмо на порозі Великого Посту – святої 40-денної підготовки до розп'яття та Воскресіння Христа – самої основи нашої віри в Бога. В цих часах напруги та страху маємо заохоту використати цю святу пору року на особистий духовний розвиток та молитву. Ми маємо багато спеціальних молитовних відправ, щоб допомогли нам у наших «пошуках за миром» у нашій мандрівці життя!

Прошу Вас, як парафіян, як громадян світу, вплиньте на світ. Прийдіть, як родина, прийдіть, як особа – ми благаємо Вас!

«БЕЗ БОГА НЕ МОЖЕМО ЗНАТИ МИРУ!»

o. T. Osgood

FORGIVENESS IS:

FORGIVENESS IS A DECISION. It is not a feeling. A decision to forgive is a first step. What happens then depends upon the individual.

FORGIVENESS US SHOWING MERCY EVEN WHEN THE INJURY HAS BEEN DELIBERATE. The challenge is not in forgiving when there is an excuse for what is done, but forgiving when there is none. This is when forgiveness is most needed.

FORGIVENESS IS ACCEPTING THE PERSON AS HE/SHE IS. It is forgiving the child for being awkward, the friend for always being late. It is letting go of judgments.

FORGIVENESS IS TAKING A RISK. It is making myself vulnerable. Some would call it foolishness, but to renew my commitment to the friend who has betrayed my trust is to trust myself to handle being hurt again.

FORGIVENESS IS ACCEPTING AN APOLOGY. It is graciously to respect the effort of reconciliation, when the hurt is deep and when it is not.

FORGIVENESS IS A WAY OF LIVING. It is developing a readiness to forgive.

FORGIVENESS IS CHOOSING TO LOVE.

James G.T. Fairfield, author of When You Don't Agree, sees forgiveness as the first skill of self-giving love.

FORGIVENESS IS NOT:

IS NOT SENTIMENTAL...

IS NOT CONDESCENDING...

IS NOT RIGHTEOUS...

Above all, it is NOT CONDITIONAL!

Eparchy of Saskatoon Family and Life Office Bulletin: February 2016

"The future of the world passes through the family" Familiaris Consortio, 79

With last year's SCC decision on Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia, the Government and society is considering the consequences of this major change in Canadian law. It is a time for somber reflection. However, it is also an opportunity for us as Church not just to make our views known on the importance of protection for the vulnerable and the suffering, but also to understand and promote the positive beauty of Catholic teaching on life—from beginning to end. Beginning with "end of life" issues this will be a 3 part series on being:

"Positively" pro-Life: Part I. Catholic teaching on the "end" of Life--

1. "The end" is usually taken to mean something is finished. It also can mean "the goal". Although our life on earth finishes with death, it is important to consider the second meaning and consider that our goal is life not death. Though we must pass through death, our "end" is life eternal.
2. It is right and just to protect and promote human life from "Conception to Natural Death".
3. Protecting life means having laws that protect the vulnerable—even from themselves if they are desperate and despairing of their lives. It also means providing health care that enables the sick to find healing. It does not mean that we must cling to this earthly life by "extra ordinary" artificial measures, long after any hope for physical healing is gone.
4. Does this mean that we support Euthanasia or Assisted Suicide? No, of course not. They are the deliberate taking of a human life before it's natural conclusion.
5. What Catholic teaching has always supported is 'bene mortasia' which is literally translated from the Latin to mean a "good death".
6. In practical terms this means we can reject the "extra ordinary" and when appropriate (no hope for recovery) let nature take its course.
7. This means in some cases it is not only permitted, but can be an act of love when artificial respirators are turned off and feeding tubes can be removed, to let nature take its course.
8. This is not to say that where there is even a slim hope of recovery we cannot avail ourselves to these measures.
9. In every instance we promote the alleviation of suffering—known as palliative care.
10. One of the kindest things that we can do for our family is to talk to them about these issues or clearly spell out our wishes in an "advance care directive". ☺DPL

WHEN IN DOUBT CHECK OUT THE GUIDE... WHAT GUIDE YOU MAY ASK? THE CATHOLIC HEALTH ETHICS GUIDE, OF COURSE!

It is written in clear concise language that is easily understood and is approved by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops and is published by the Catholic Health Alliance of Canada. It covers such topics as Fundamental Moral Values, Catholic Health Care, Human Dignity, Care at the Beginning of Life, Care at the end of Life and Organ Donation. A limited number of copies of this guide can be obtained from the Family and Life Office, email Deborah Larmour at ucfamilylifeoffice@sasktel.net Or they can be obtained directly from the publisher email: books@novalis.ca . An e-book copy can also be obtained on <http://www.amazon.ca> This is highly recommended reading for all the faithful but is ESSENTIAL reading for anyone in the educational, legal and of course, the health care professions.

Thoughts from St. Pope John Paul II On Suffering:

Saint Paul speaks of such joy in the Letter to the Colossians: "I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake". A source of joy is found in the overcoming of the sense of the uselessness of suffering, a feeling that is sometimes very strongly rooted in human suffering. This feeling not only consumes the person interiorly, but seems to make him a burden to others. The person feels condemned to receive help and assistance from others, and at the same time seems useless to himself. The discovery of the salvific meaning of suffering in union with Christ transforms this depressing feeling. Faith in sharing in the suffering of Christ brings with it the interior certainty that the suffering person "completes what is lacking in Christ's afflictions"; the certainty that in the spiritual dimension of the work of Redemption he is serving, like Christ, the salvation of his brothers and sisters. Therefore he is carrying out an irreplaceable service. In the Body of Christ, which is ceaselessly born of the Cross of the Redeemer, it is precisely suffering permeated by the spirit of Christ's sacrifice that is the irreplaceable mediator and author of the good things which are indispensable for the world's salvation. It is suffering, more than anything else, which clears the way for the grace which transforms human souls. Suffering, more than anything else, makes present in the history of humanity the powers of the Redemption. In that "cosmic" struggle between the spiritual powers of good and evil, spoken of in the Letter to the Ephesians human sufferings, united to the redemptive suffering of Christ, constitute a special support for the powers of good, and open the way to the victory of these salvific powers. Salvifici Doloris 27 (Feb. 11, 1984) https://w2.vatican.va/content/john-paul-ii/en/apost\_letters/1984/documents/hf\_jp-ii\_apl\_11021984\_salvifici-doloris.html
